How much does childcare cost?

The cost of childcare depends on your choices and your personal situation. You pay part of the cost of childcare yourself, the municipality or the Dutch government pays the other part.

The calculation tool on our website gives you immediate insight into the costs. We have listed the costs for you, together with a number of calculation examples. Check the website of the Dutch Tax and Customs Administration to see if you are entitled to childcare benefit.

Childcare allowance

Childcare allowance is a Dutch childcare benefit paid by the government to help cover the cost of childcare. The childcare allowance is provided through the Dutch Tax Office (Belastingdienst). The level of the contribution to the cost of childcare depends on your income, the number of children you have, your working hours and the hourly rate of your child's day care or out-of-school care.

The childcare allowance hourly rate for 2020 has been slightly raised. The Dutch Tax Office ('Belastingdienst') will pay childcare allowance up to this maximum hourly rate in 2020.

Childcare benefit maximum hourly rate

	2020
Day care	€ 8,17
Out-of-school care (incl. holiday care)	€ 7,02

Choose the right Out-of-school care package

Choose the right Out-of-school care package

The differences in the net costs of the various Out-of-school care packages are not significant.

So, if you like things to be simple and you regularly:

- ✓ need an (extra) school-free day
- ✓ or an (extra) day during the school holidays

then an Out-of-school care Plus or Out-of-school care Total package with its flexible care credit may be a cheaper option. You can also use the Out-of-school care Total package credit for school days.

Flexibility and ease with the Out-of-school care credit

With the Out-of-school care Plus or Total package you will receive care credit. With an Out-of-school care Plus contract for 1 day per week you will receive credit for 6 days per calendar year and with an Out-of-school care Total contract, 12 days. You decide how and when you use this credit: for a day during the school holidays or a school-free day. You can organise this quickly and easily with the parent app. This is not only easy, but also cheaper than booking them individually, as you pay the highest rate for incidental days.

Do you have any questions about your package? Our customer services staff will be pleased to help! You can call them on +31 (0)70 - 79 20 104 on work days between 8.30 – 17.00 CET. Or email your question to: service@truecolorschildcare.com.
